

SERENADING MOTHERS at a tea honoring storybook circus volunteers are second grade students of Rolling Hills Country Day School. The Thursday event took place at the home of Mrs. Harry H. Wetzel, 401 Via Media, Palos Verdes Estates. Pictured with Mrs. Martha Smith, teacher, are (l-r) Laura Vall, Janice Blair, Robert Ronne and Ray Swiney.

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

SHOOTING IT UP as they rehearse for a musical skit, "Ballad of a Share," to be presented at a Hadassah meeting Tuesday are (l-r) Mmes. Robert Hahn, Randolph Fields and Ernest Tarr. The 11 a.m. meeting in the community room of American Savings and Loan Association, South Bay Center, will precede an afternoon of Chanukah games. The hostesses will be Mmes. Irving Miller and Sam Windsor. Mrs. Robert Breakstone will direct the skit.

Riviera Home to Provide Setting for Holiday Tea

Setting for the annual Christmas tea of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch, American Association of University Women, will be the Hollywood Riviera home of Mrs. Raynar Thorensen, 152 Vista del Parque.

The event is set for 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 9.

Special guests will include: Mmes. John French (Dorothy Kirsten); Roy Chilton, president, Palos Verdes Peninsula Chamber of Commerce; Phyllis Stockdale, Rolling Hills Estates city manager; John Clifton, city council member of that city; L. S. Weiss, member, Palos Verdes Estates city council.

Also the Rev. Mother du Sacre Coeur, president, Marymount College; Mmes. Seth Crane, principal, Palos Verdes High School; Mrs. Antoinette McChristy, Valmonte school principal; Miss Charlotte Ferris, Pedregal school principal; Mrs. Clark Wiedmann, member, Palos Verdes Peninsula Unified School Board; Mrs. Eleanor Kingman, Palos Verdes librarian.

Mrs. Lillian Throne, Palos Verdes postmistress; Dr. Joy Carter, STL staff member; Mrs. Alex Nelson and Mrs. Leonard West, both artists; Mrs. Frank Sieglinger (Adele Davis), nutritionist author; Mrs. William Bailey, PTA president of Palos Verdes High School.

Members of the executive board will be in the receiving line with Mrs. Harold O. Simar, branch president. Section chairmen will pour.

Assisting Mrs. Stuart G. Forbes, hospitality chairman, with arrangements are Mmes. Walker W. Brown, Joseph F. Goodwin, Charles W. Blenkhorn, Vincent R. Di Flore, Henry Low, Galen Wilson, Milton C. Woolson, John C. King, Joseph P. Jay, R. W. Rector and William J. Fleming.

Interested prospective members are invited to call Mrs. Thomas Harding membership chairman at FR 7-5285.

Calendar Supper Sets Off Season

Redondo Beach Dianas Junior Women's Club will attend a "Calendar Supper" at the clubhouse this evening, 9:30 p.m. roast beef dinner is planned.

Announcement of the event was made at a meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Martin Galos. Mrs. Roger Gardemann president and Mmes. Charles Bougmont, A. L. Hammond and Winnifred Van Gilder served as co-ordinators.

Plans were formulated for the annual "Holly Ball" to be presented Dec. 7 at the Cackatoo Inn and the children's Christmas party slated for Dec. 20. Chairman of both events is Mrs. Charles Hillinger.

A rummage sale will be conducted in January under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Mitchell.

Mrs. Eldon Pratt, philanthropy chairman, reported on the Christmas party to be given Dec. 19 for the residents of the group's adopted cottage. She announced that doll clothing made by members will be distributed at the Salvation Army Doll Tea Wednesday, Dec. 5.

Members will assist in sorting clothes for the La Paz school.

Named representative to the South Bay Union High School District's citizen committee was Miss Jeanne Moody, youth chairman.

Dianas who assisted in the Christmas Seal drive at the Tuberculosis Health Foundation were: Mmes. Bougmont, Jack Slater, Hillinger, Donald Deckert and Jerry Farrens and Miss Sara Mitchell, according to Mrs. Frank Torino, civic service chairman.

MRS. RICHARD NORTON ... wed in Claremont

Mexican Theme To Highlight Ball

Pinatas, glittering gold sombreros and gay centerpieces will add a South-of-the-border touch to Las Madrecitas' annual Evergreen Ball, scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 15 at the Palos Verdes Country Club.

This year's theme, "A Mexican Christmas" will revive the gay holiday fiestas the peninsula knew in the days of the early Spanish settlers.

A brilliant orange, yellow and green striped canopy will transform the sedate foyer of the country club.

Swaying from the ceiling of the main ballroom will be a turquoise dove. Strolling mariachis will entertain guests during the cocktail and dinner hours. Following a rotisserie of beef dinner, guests will dance to the music of Les Troncier and his orchestra.

Proceeds of the Evergreen Ball will go to the Pediatric Ward of the Orthopaedic Hospital.

Co-chairmen are: Mmes. Watts, Mrs. William Wil-

ADULTS GRADUATE

More than 29 per cent of Los Angeles metropolitan area adults have graduated from high school, according to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

George C. Lewis and Helene Lins is in charge of decorations. Assisting are: Mmes. Robert Friedson, James R. Kaplan, Glenn Kleinhesselink, David Sanders, Wyman G. Reynolds and Bruce K. Swauger.

MISS JOAN RALPH ... reveals marriage plans

El Camino Graduate Marries Lieutenant

Claremont Church was the setting for the 2 p.m. wedding of Joy Frances Hinz of Palos Verdes Estates to Lt. Richard Decker Norton of Claremont Saturday, Nov. 24. Chaplain Augustus T. Noland officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's gown, of silk organza, was ornamented with rare lace and sequins. Her satin and pearl cap and the shoulder-length veil given to her for the occasion by the sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. J. Richard Kerr. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Escorted by her father, Everett A. Hinz, of Palos Verdes Estates, the bride had as matron of honor her twin sister, Mrs. June Evelyn Kulp of Westwood.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Sue Hinz, of Phoenix, sister of the bride, and Miss Carol May Norton, sister of the bridegroom. Their bouffant dresses were of soft blue and they carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums tied with blue ribbon.

Best man was J. Richard Kerr, brother-in-law, of Menlo Park, and ushers were Lt. William Martin, of Newport Beach, William Cooper of Mountain View and Lawrence Templeton, of Palo Alto, all friends of the bridegroom at Stanford University. Tim Pedley, of Pomona college, was organist.

The church was decorated with large bouquets of white gladiolas, white chrysanthemums, stocks and potted palms.

Following the ceremony,

Palmdale Girl to Wed North High Graduate

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Ralph of Palmdale announced the engagement of their daughter, Joan, to Joe Richard Covey at a church party in Palmdale Saturday, Nov. 17.

Decorations were in a pink and white theme. The centerpiece was comprised of a snow lady and snowman bearing an engagement ring beneath a glittering arch trimmed with flowers and wedding bells.

A 1960 graduate of Palmdale High School, the bride is employed as a dental assistant in Lancaster.

The benedict-eiect, who formerly resided in Torrance, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Van B. Covey of Lancaster. Currently employed at the Palmdale facility of North American Aviation, he is a 1959 graduate of North High School and attended El Camino College while employed by Luck's Stores. The bridegroom-to-be is presently attending Antelope Valley College.

An early summer wedding is planned.

NOTE ANNIVERSARY

Celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary with a group of localites at The Pen and Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Luedke of Palos Verdes Estates.

Members of the dinner party included Messrs. and Mmes. David Storch of Torrance, Mark Santull of Rolling Hills and S. E. Masek.

125 relatives and guests were received at the Claremont home of the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Norton. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Cecil A. Pappan, mother of the bride and Mr. Hinz.

The bride was graduated from high school in Denver, Colorado and from El Camino College, where she was president of her sorority. Recently she has been employed at the laboratory of the Studebaker Hospital, Norwalk.

Lt. Norton is a graduate of Claremont High School. He was for a number of years a member of the Claremont Civic Orchestra and the Pomona College Orchestra, and is a graduate of Stanford University. He received his wings as a pilot in the United States Air Force last May at Reese Air Force Base, Texas and is now Instructor in the Student Pilot Training Program.

Following a two-week honeymoon the couple will make their home at Reese Air Force Base.

Visitors To Share Holiday

Two European exchange students will have their first introduction to an American Christmas this evening when they are guests of Torrance Chapter, American Field Service, at a 7:30 p.m. meeting at the YWCA.

Sharing Christmas stories and carols of their native lands will be Miss Vinciane Cressi of Brussels, Belgium and Miss Aricelle Blanco of Bilbao, Spain.

Winners of pre-screening tests for the "Americans Abroad" program will be special guests. Finalists will spend summer 1963, in Europe, South America or Asia.

Miss Susan Smith, Torrance High School, who spent last summer in Armanda De Bueno, Spain and Richard Parker, North High School, who was in Salonika, Greece, will show slides taken at their summer homes.

WORKSHOPS

Sheltered workshops now help many mentally retarded adults to earn a living instead of being economic burdens on the community.